

PANTHER POST

Keeler Students Celebrate Togetherness with Annual Thanksgiving Luncheon

With the holiday approaching, Keeler School once again embraced its warmest tradition: its annual Thanksgiving Luncheon. For the past seven years, this event has been a cherished hallmark of our school community, bringing together students for a day of gratitude, delicious food, and friendship.

This year's luncheon was nothing short of spectacular. Our tables were laden with an array of home-cooked dishes that would make any Thanksgiving table proud. We extend our heartfelt thanks to the parents and Costco, whose generous donations made this feast possible. The menu featured mouth-watering turkey, savory stuffing, crisp green beans, and everyone's favorite, creamy mac and cheese. The joy of sharing these dishes made them taste even better.

What makes the Thanksgiving Luncheon at Keeler so special is not just the food, but the opportunity it provides for camaraderie. In our fast-paced world, students often find it challenging to pause and connect. This event breaks down those barriers, allowing students who don't normally have time to socialize an opportunity to sit together, share stories, and strengthen friendships. It's a time when laughter fills the air, and new memories are made.

Our Thanksgiving celebration doesn't end at the school doors. In the spirit of giving, leftovers from the luncheon are hand-delivered by our dedicated staff to families in the community who need assistance. This act of kindness serves as an additional lesson to our students about the importance of compassion and supporting those in crisis. It's a practical demonstration of the values we cherish and teach at Keeler and across Redford Union Schools.

As we reflect on another successful Thanksgiving Luncheon, we are reminded of the strength and warmth of our school community. This event is not just about enjoying a meal, it's about nurturing a sense of belonging and caring for each other. We are grateful for everyone who contributed to making this event a success and look forward to many more years of this wonderful tradition.